Describe How Animals at the Izaak Walton Park Get Energy SOL 3.5

- 1) Which of the following is not a consumer?
  - a. Robin
  - b. Poison ivy
  - c. Rattlesnake
  - d. Rainbow trout
- 2) Why are decomposers important to the environment?
  - a. They break down decayed plants and animals and help plants grow.
  - b. They make their own food from sunlight.
  - c. Carnivores eat only decomposers for food.
  - d. Herbivores eat only decomposers for food.
- 3) From where do producers get their energy?
  - a. Animals
  - b. The sun
  - c. Plants
  - d. The earth
- 4) What is a white-tailed deer?
  - a. Decomposer
  - b. Carnivore
  - c. Herbivore
  - d. Producer
- 5) What do producers use to make their own food?
  - a. Sunlight, water, air
  - b. Leaves, soil
  - c. Rocks, rain
  - d. Insects, animals
- 6) Where do producers store the food that they produce?
  - a. Leaves
  - b. Roots
  - c. Seeds and fruit
  - d. All of the above